- Governments of France and Colombia signed agreements and strengthen bilateral relations : In 2015, a total of 12 Agreements on Different Issues signed the Governments of France and Colombia during the Official Visit of Prime Minister Manuel Valls, which strengthens and reinforces the Bilateral Relationship. One of the Documents was the Double Taxation Agreement that provides Security and Stability to Entrepreneurs from both Countries, which, and as said by President Juan Manuel Santos, is expected to give a Boost to the Investment made by Entrepreneurs from both Countries.

- Why invest in Colombia ?

Colombia has one of the most outstanding Macroeconomic Performances within the Region. The stability and continuity of Government Policies and Independence of its Economic Bodies guarantees an Ideal Environment for investing. Additionally, and not less relevant, the Country is Strategically Located with Access to the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. Colombia has different International Commercial Agreements that allow Preferential Access to more than 45 Countries and approximately 1,500 million Consumers around the World. Qualified Labor in the Country exceeds that of Countries such as Brazil, Chile, Peru, Argentina and Venezuela, according to the IMD ranking for 2014.

Colombia is a Country with a Strategic Geographic Location. Its ports, both in the Caribbean and the Pacific Oceans, allow for the best position in South America as a dispatch center for Central America, North America and Europe. It has land borders with Venezuela, Peru, Ecuador, Brazil and Panama. The country is made up of Five Areas, characterized by their Culture, Art, Folklore, Gastronomy and Music. Each Region is Unique; however, the Country has a Sole National Identity and Territorial Integration through Land, River and Air Routes.

The Five Regions are :

- * Andean Region
- * Caribbean Region
- * Pacific Region
- * Eastern Region
- * South-Eastern or Eastern Plains Region

This continuous improvement to Investment Conditions is complemented by a Good Business Environment. According to the Doing Business 2014 Report from the World Bank, Colombia is ranks Sixth in the World and first in Latin America in Protection to Investors. Additionally, this ranking places the Country Third as the "Friendliest" Destination for doing Business in the Region.

The Country has considered External Markets as a Primary Factor for Development and Growth of Exports and as a Result, it has a Promotion Policy by means of Financial Instruments, Market Intelligence and Incentivizing Competitiveness. Exports of the Agricultural and Food and Beverages Sectors represent 19% of the Total, while Manufacturing represents 23% and Oil and the Extractive Industries amount for 54%.
